➤ Intro:

- illus.: disappointment – true story
 - Dr. Lenore Campbell tells this story about going to see a patient who was coming out of anesthesia.
 - Far off church chimes sounded as the woman woke up, and murmured, "I must be in heaven."
 - Then she looked up and saw me, and the woman disappointedly said, "No, I can't be. There's Dr. Campbell."
revised, from Lenore Campbell, M.D., in Medical Economics
 - life offers many disappointments, even waking up from a coma and finding that we're not in heaven
- illus.: God is like a father who gave advise to son, at end, he said, "If you do what I say, you won't be disappointed."
 - son took his father's advise, and it was as he promised, the son was not disappointed
- God made the same promise to us! – You Won't Be Disappointed!

➤ God promises, we won't be disappointed!

- 1 Pet. 2:6 if believe in Jesus: not be disappointed (NASB) / not be shamed (NKJ)

➤ - Rom. 9:33; 10:11

- Greek word *kataischuno (kat-ahee-skhoo'-no) meaning dishonor, disgrace, shame, humiliate, disappoint
 - the Hebrew from which the NT writers quote literally means "shall not make haste" in the sense of being afraid or agitated with fear or frightened, hence not being shamed or disappointed as a child of God
 - today's lesson, from the perspective of not being disappointed

➤ - God's promise:

- If we believe in Jesus, we won't be disappointed (shamed)! But if we don't believe in Jesus
 - Rom. 9:33; 10:11; 1 Pet. 2:6 believe Jesus, not disappointed (shamed)
 - Dan. 12:1-3 (vision) righteous v. unrighteous / glorified v. shamed (disappointed)

- What does it mean to believe in Jesus, whereby we're not disappointed (shamed)? – determining factor
 - illus.: little boy had to decide whether to believe his father, and do what he said, trusting in the promise that he wouldn't be disappointed - for boy to believe father, had to do what he said
 - likewise, to believe in Jesus, have to do what He says
 - to believe in Jesus, we must receive Him as the authority of our life
 - Jn. 1:12 receive Jesus (receive as authority), given the right to become children of God, because they believe in His name
 - Matt. 28:18 Jesus has all authority, heaven and earth
 - illus. parable: Matt. 21:33-39, parable of the landowner
 - a landowner planted a vineyard, put a wall around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a Tower
 - then he rented it out to vine-growers and went on a journey
 - when harvest time came, the landowner sent his slaves to the vine-growers to receive his produce, but they beat one, killed another, and stoned a third
 - again he sent another group of slaves, larger than the first, and the landowners did the same thing
 - at last, the landowner sent his son to the vine-growers, saying, "They will respect my son"
 - but when the vine-growers saw the son, they said among themselves, "This is the heir; come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance."
 - then the vine-growers threw the landowner's son out of the vineyard, and killed him
 - like the vine-growers, we decide whether or not to respect the authority of the Son, Jesus Christ
 - God does not "make" us respect Christ's authority, but He punishes us for eternity if we don't
- - to believe in Jesus, we must act on His word – do what He says
 - Matt. 7:26 Jesus, hears His words, act on them, or will be like foolish man
 - 1 Pet. 2:2, 6 act: desire milk of word, grow in respect to salvation, not disappointed
- - to act on Jesus' words, we must obey Him
 - Jn. 14:15 Jesus, love, keep His commandments
 - Jn. 15:10 Jesus, keep His commandments, abide in His love
 - Heb. 5:9 Jesus, source of eternal salvation to all who obey Him
- Because we believe in Jesus, we won't be disappointed (put to shame)!
 - we live with a spiritual view of life, not a physical
 - "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 - "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
 - "Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth.
 - "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
 - "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.
 - "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
 - "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.
 - "Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 - "Blessed are you when people insult you and persecute you, and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of Me. "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great; for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

- Believing in Jesus, we're not disappointed while upon the earth – strong, not fear!
 - illus.: many who live upon the earth are disappointed, because they're seeking worldly success above spiritual success
 - Alexander the Great conquered Persia, but broke down and wept because his troops were too exhausted to push on to India.
 - Hugo Grotius (grō' shəs), the father of modern international law, said at the last, "I have accomplished nothing worthwhile in my life."
 - John Quincy Adams, sixth President of the U.S., wrote in his diary: "My life has been spent in vain and idle aspirations, and in ceaseless rejected prayers that something would be the result of my existence beneficial to my species."
