

What are your goals for 2008?

➤ = next PowerPoint slide

➤ Intro:

- pic: happy new year
- this lesson: looking forward, 2008, personal goals and objectives
- next lesson: looking back at who we were without Christ, motivation

➤ It's good to set goals

- Paul set goals
  - 1 Cor. 4:19 set goal to visit Corinth, preach, correct them

➤ - Paul prayed about his goals, others prayed for him

- Eph. 6:19-20 prayed, asked for prayers, evangelistic goals and abilities

➤ - Ph'm. 1:22 Paul was confident in the efficacy of Philemon's prayers, visit with him

➤ - setting goals: common sense

- illus.: upcoming presidential election

- Would you vote for a person who said they had no goals? Why?

- illus.: budget (congregation, business, family)

- Do you think there is a Fortune 500 company that doesn't have a budget?

- What would you think if the elders didn't have a budget, overspent by $100k, and wanted everyone to make it up in one week?

- illus.: sales goals with business

- Do you think you could work in sales for any successful company, and not have sales goals?

- benefits: more productive, stay in priorities, better use of time – all things we want to do for God

- application: it's helpful to set goal, Biblical, common sense

- Have you set goals? Are you praying about them?

- God had blessed us to meet and exceed many of our goals and aspirations – press forward
  - summary: last couple of years
    - had some trouble few years ago, as do all congregations (Corinth, Rome, Asian churches in Rev., etc.)
      - successfully worked through
    - 2 years ago attendance running 50-60, now 80-90 - 50% increase
      - now digesting gains
  - great Bible classes all ages
    - review Q1, 2008: Sunday relationships, Wed. ladies' class
  - done well reaching out to others: evangelism
    - will continue to improve
    - 14 baptized, 3 restored, 17 place membership (+ children)
      - not all converted faithful, parable of sower
  - elders and deacons excelling
    - other men growing to fill these offices
  - young men involved teaching youth, growing and maturing
  - ladies excelling: visiting, personal work, helping elderly and shut in, teaching great classes
  - young people growing and maturing, spiritual, doing personal work, encouraging everyone
    - Bible Drill, monthly Sunday evening class
  - preacher training program: Heath and Renee (married, soon in Norway), Paul and Alice (doing great, growing, improving, asset)
  - supporting preachers in other places, involved in benevolence with poor brethren
- - application: ready for new challenges
  - Phil. 3:12-14 need to challenge ourselves again and again – yesterday is past, reach forward and excel
- - Rev. 3:15-17a not be a lukewarm church satisfied with a little success and content to be stagnant
- Proper perspective in setting goals:
  - Matt. 6:24, 33 put God first
- - Mk. 12:30 love God with all heart, soul, mind, strength
- - Ja. 4:6 humble heart, consider the things we can accomplish 2008
- - Ja. 4:13-16 if the Lord wills, not know what will happen, life like a vapor
  - illus.: Paul 1 Cor. 4:19 (above) “if the Lord wills”

- What are some goals Christians may want to set? – use these to stimulate thought, think about yourself
  - elders talk about goals for congregation as a whole very soon when address congregation
  - be a good example every day
    - 1 Tim. 4:12 we should be examples, show way to heaven by way we live
    - illus. young Christians: may be big goal, older Christians should have this down
    - illus.: Allan, serious about serving God, this was best I could do
- - be at every assembly possible – re-challenge ourselves
  - Heb. 10:24-25 not forsake – illus.: sports team, marching band drum line
  - elderly: push self every time, not allow yourself to make excuses
  - young, in school and working: no “real” financial responsibility: not work during assembly time
    - some young people, 2 days off per week, take Sunday and Wednesday - not off Sat., Fri. night, etc.
  - adults: many people changed jobs and professions to be at church twice on Sunday and mid-week Bible study
  - summary: put God first, He won’t let you down
- - be healthier, more physically fit (Allan, started end of 2007)
  - worship and serving God are physical activities in many respects
    - application: must be healthy and physically fit to do many things in service to God
    - illus.: assemble with saints, visiting sick, evangelism
  - 1 Cor. 6:19-20 glorify God, body, bought with price, not your own
    - ???: Does it glorify God if we don’t take care of our bodies and can’t physically work in His kingdom?
- - become more spiritual / stronger
  - Bible:
    - Scriptures:
      - Jn. 12:48 judged by Jesus’ word – 2 Cor. 5:10
        - Do you know Bible? Are you trusting that someone told you right? – parent, preacher, friend
      - Gal. 1:8-9 people who teach false doctrine, accursed
        - What if someone taught you a false doctrine, you believed it, and you’re teaching others?
      - Gal. 5:2-4 practicing false doctrine, severed from Christ, fallen from grace
        - What if someone taught you a false doctrine, you believed it, you are practicing it?
    - possible goals:
      - read the whole Bible
      - thoroughly know the Bible teaching on salvation, work and worship of the church
      - study the Bible once per day, week, etc.
      - study a particular topic in detail
      - be prepared for every Bible class at church
  - prayer:
    - Scriptures:
      - 1 Th. 5:17-18 pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks
      - Col. 4:2 devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving
      - Ja. 5:16 pray for one another so that you may be healed, effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much

- possible goals:
  - pray every day, twice a day, etc.
  - have a “prayer meeting” at house
  - pray for sick and shut-in more, etc.
  - pray for lost more, etc.

- - do more personal work – recent series
  - Ja. 1:27 pure and undefiled religion, visit – visit sick or shut / make phone calls
  - make and work your personal evangelism plan (lessons on Internet, get copies from Alan)
    - bring #? people to church
    - talk to more people about God

- Summary / Inv.
  - God had blessed us as a congregation to meet and exceed our goals
  - time to re-challenge selves, reach to accomplish new goals, not become lukewarm (Phil. 3:12-14; Rev. 3:15-17)
  - Will you push yourself to become a better Christians in 2008? What are your goals?
  - inv.: if not a Christian, best way to begin the year. . . .
